Toronto Pearson International Airport (YYZ): You have many ground transportation options from Toronto Pearson International Airport to downtown Toronto. Your options include taxi or limousine, car rental, or UP Express.

Billy Bishop Toronto City Airport (YTZ): To get between the island and the mainland, use the airport's ferry or walk to the mainland via the new tunnel. The ferry makes its very short run between the airport and the mainland every 15 minutes. The tunnel spans 853 feet and takes under six minutes to walk. Taxis and shuttle buses to Union Station are available on the mainland.

From Union Station: If you are taking public transit to the hotel please see Public Transit section below. Taxis are available outside the train station and the hotel is a short ride north.

Public Transit: Take the TTC Subway northbound from Union Station on the Yonge Line to College Street. If coming from the north, again take the Yonge line to College Station. Walk one block south to Gerrard Street, and the hotel is located between Yonge Street and Bay Street.

Driving From East: Take Highway 401 West to Yonge Street South exit. Follow Yonge Street South all the way downtown until Elm Street. Turn right on to Elm, and the hotel's entrance is on the right.

Driving From West, and Airport: Follow Highway 401 East to Highway 427 South and then Gardner Expressway East. Exit at Bay Street and go north on Bay Street until Elm Street. Turn right on to Elm Street, and the hotel's entrance is on the left.
